

Clayton Halvorsen

September 7, 2009

Obituary of Clayton Halvorsen

Clayton E. Halvorsen, of Tavares, Florida, died on Monday, September 7, 2009.

He is survived by his wife Joan Turner Halvorsen, his daughter Karen Halvorsen Schreck, and their families. Clayton, a veteran of World War II, was a Professor of Music at Wheaton College in Illinois for over 30 years.

Tribute Wall

CS

“ Thank you Mr Halvorsen for all the work you did with so many .. God blessed many lives because of your dedication to your place of work and joy in this world.. God allowed you to teach and gain respect of no doubt more people than I could began to count.. You will forever be remembered with the respect & honor you deserved so well.

C. Smith - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM

GL

“ Clayton's life made a huge difference in the lives of so many men in the Wheaton College Men's Glee Club. We all loved him as a friend, counselor, and mentor. He tried to make us into more than musicians, he worked to help us to becoming Godly gentlemen (with a healthy sense of humor!). He was a gift to all of us, and we will never forget him. George R. Leichnetz, Wheaton Class of 1964

George R. Leichnetz - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM

BP

“ Dear Joan, We were so sorry to learn that Clayton is not with us, but so happy to know that he is with Jesus. Clayton was a true gentleman and one of the nicest men that we knew. We were honored to know him. Much love to you.

Bill and Nancy Parrish - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM