“ I will remember Clay Jarrett with very fond memories. They were members of the church I was serving as a young pastor in Waynesville, NC. Such a kind, generous man with a big heart. I will always remember the trip to their home in Cutler Ridge Florida and the trip to Key West. A great man who loved his country, his family and his Lord. Rest in peace my friend!

“ Clay was a true friend of ours since 1973. He and Betty welcomed us so warmly and quickly when we were newcomers at our local Miami church. He was unselfish and such a giver; not only to individuals like us, but to the church and missions. Oh the memories of fish fries and fishing expeditions! Will never forget hosting their surprise 25 th wedding anniversary party. He loved a good party! He has gone home and is having a great reunion with his son! We will meet again! Praise the Lord!

“ FOR 54 YEARS WE HAVE KNOWN OUR BEST FRIENDS BETTY AND CLAY AND OUR TIMES TOGETHER HAVE BEEN EXCITING TO SAY THE LEAST. ONE ADVENTURE AFTER ANOTHER MOST OF WHICH HAVE BEEN A HOOT. WE WILL MISS OUR WARRIOR FRIEND WHO ALWAYS PUT HIMSELF LAST AND HIS FRIENDS FIRST. HIS HEART WAS PURE AND CONCERNED FOR HIS FELLOW MAN AND HIS FAMILY. HE IS MOST CERTAINLY IN THE ARMS OF THE FATHER AND IS NOT IN ANY MORE PAIN. PRAISE THE LORD FOR HIS FAITHFULNESS AND HIS PROMISES WHICH HE ALWAYS KEEPS. WE WILL SEE YOU AGAIN DEAR FRIEND!!
