

Clifford Cochran

March 28, 2015

Obituary of Clifford Cochran, Sr.

Clifford Cochran, Sr, 79, passed away Saturday, March 28, 2015. He came to The Villages in 2003 from Fort Smith, AR.

He was a veteran of both the US Air Force and the US Marine Corp and a former member of the California State Military Reserve.

He was a production coordinator with American Standard in Fort Smith and enjoyed working with his "other" family at The Villages Old Mill Playhouse for his last 10 years.

He is survived by his wife, Patricia, two daughters Caren King and her husband Bill and Cheryl Ray all of Van Buren, AR, son Cliff Cochran, Jr and his wife Dora of Barling, AR. He also leaves one grandson Christopher Hamilton and his wife April, two granddaughters, Evelee Hamilton and Ashley Cochran all of Arkansas.

Tribute Wall

VL

“ Pat, I was so sorry to learn of Cliff's death. I have been thinking of you often, you are in my prayers. We can never replace those we have lost, but we do rejoice in the memories. The gift of love remains with us always. Val

Valerie Lewis - April 14, 2015 at 12:00 AM

EW

“ Pat and family, I cannot tell you how sad it was for me to learn of Cliff's passing. He had such a great smile and sense of humor. A man of his word and loyal a friend. Please contact me at the e-mail above or call me at 1-800-643-2980 ext 247 or 479-255-9210. Cliff will always be remembered with fond memories.

Estine Windenburg - April 09, 2015 at 12:00 AM

JB

“ Mrs.Cochran and family, My deepest prayers go out to you and your family. I have known Cliff for 10 years and he was an awesome person. A great mentor, a great listener and an awesome co-worker. He will be missed. Cliffy, rest in peace. Love ya. Jennifer

Jennifer Burroughs - April 02, 2015 at 12:00 AM

PB

“ May God Bless you and take care of you and watch over your loving family; you will be missed dearly; I've worked with you for 10 years at the OMP and you have been a great friend God Bless You Cliff loving Phil and Anne Marie

Phil & Anne Marie Busacco - April 01, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ Clifford Cochran

March 31, 2015 at 12:00 AM