“ I remember my dear, kind, patient cousin Corinne taught me how to roller skate, when I was maybe around 5, in those metal skates that I think were tightened and loosened with a key. I have many fond memories of our times together. May she RIP.

“ I am so sad to hear of Corrine's passing. My heart is heavy and it breaks for her wonderful, kind and loving husband, Vic, and their children and grandchildren. Corrine and I were instant friends when we first met. Her kindness, joy and familiar New York accent, won my heart. She was like a mother, grandmother and certainly a dear friend to me, my husband, and my boys. I pray the Lord is holding her now and that He will send his almighty love and peace to all that mourn her passing. May God especially bless her husband Vic. Pappy, we still have your signed baseball! All our love, Kim, Pat, Patrick and Colin.
