“ In trying to find family that I lost track of many years ago, I am finding obituaries. I would enjoy reconnecting to anyone who is interested. My mother was Irene Levendoski, sister to John Levendoski, who was Dale's father. Dale was my cousin. My mother married Marion Graw. We all lived in LaPorte until Mom and Dad bought an A&W in Ludington Michigan. I have one brother, Jerry Graw. Thank you.

“ I was blessed to meet Dale on our mission trip to Birmingham. It's amazing how people touch our lives in such a short period of time and I wish I'd known him better. He will be missed. God Bless!

“ I was distressed to learn of Dale's passing. We've known each other for many, many years since Dale was with State Farm all those years ago. We had a nice visit at lunch in the Villages some months ago and made plans to do it again when we visit the area. I am sorry we won't be able to, but we discussed Christ and I'm sure we'll see him later in Heaven. Our sympathies to the family.
