In loving Memory of Daniel Louis Kirts

It is with extreme sadness that the family of Daniel L Kirts announce his passing after a sudden illness on Saturday September 9th. A 29-year-old native of Florida, Daniel will lovingly and eternally be remembered by his mother, Terrie Kirts of Grand Island, Florida, his grandmother, Barbara Alford of Leesburg, Florida, his aunt Teresa Threlkeld of Leesburg, Florida and his girlfriend Gina Mussatti of Eustis, Florida, along with numerous friends and family. He was predeceased by his father Stuart Kirts and his beloved "Pawpaw", Myron Alford.

Daniel graduated as a Registered Nurse from Lake Sumter State College in 2013 and was employed at Waterman Village Edgewater in Mt. Dora, Florida. Daniel had 3 great loves in his life; Salt water aquariums, his job as an RN at Waterman Villages and his cherished Jeep! He was also very proud that he had just purchased his first home and was excited for the future. His heartbroken family will forever remember him for his kind soul, red hair, and blue eyes. He was their pride and joy. He will be so very missed by countless friends as he never seemed to know a stranger.

“ Praying for you during this difficult time. I worked with Daniel at Waterman Village. He was a good nurse. He had great clinical skills, but more importantly he had heart...that's why he was not only a great nurse, but a good man. He never failed to give me a warm welcome and asked me about whatever might be going on in my life. He was kind, considerate and compassionate. You raised a good son. He will be missed and I am sorry for your tremendous loss. May God give you peace

“ I didn't get to see Daniel much when he was growing up. I "kept up" with some of his life through Facebook, but it wasn't until his passing that I realized how many lives he touched. The comments and pictures that were posted were truly inspiring.

My heart goes out to his family; the ones that were able to see Daniel grow into the wonderful and compassionate person he was - his Mother Terrie, Grandmother Barbara and Aunt TJ.
