“ I was just thinking of Danny P and was shocked to see this obit. I worked for Dan at Rockwell back in the early 80's and Dan always made working fun. I looked forward to going to work there just because of Danny P. RIP Dan ... I will look forward to seeing you on down the road.

“ Uncle Dan was my favorite uncle. We communicated through emails. I am so going to miss him and I do regret not going and seeing him. He was so optimistic and just made you feel good about everything. Dan I miss you and I am sorry. Dreanna, Marcie and Annie, I am so sorry for your loss. I know he loved you all so much. God Bless. Love Pam

“ What I remember most of Danny was his gentle nature. Seldom to anger or speak ill of another. A caring, empathic guy who we all considered a best friend. Also, probably the most intelligent of our motley crew. My sincere condolences to Dreanna and family. Sid

“ My heartfelt sympathy to all of you. I will always remember Dan for how much he cared for others. Within our Friday night gang, he was always the protective big brother. Dreeanna, Dan told me years after you got married that you were the love of his life. Marcia & Annie, I remember your dad never spoke about you without a gleam of pride in his eyes. Thank you for sharing Dan with the rest of us. He will be missed by all who's lives he touched.

“ My dearest Danielson. There is a hole in my heart where you once were. I know you don't want me to dwell but it is hard right now. Just give me a minute! Or two! Thank you for being you. Thank you for being a loving husband, father, grandfather, brother, son-in-law, brother-in-law, cousin--you name it. I love you and miss you Dan Patrick and will dance your dance as long as I'm allowed. See ya when I see ya. Peace.
