ME

“ I will remember Dan for his kindness, to animals and friends and dear wife, Carrie. One thing that stands out in my mind when I think of Dan is his longing to share whatever he had with those around him. From hand feeding a nut to a squirrel, to sharing his vast movie collection on Plex, to making sure we have the latest Jackbox games to spend a Friday night together, Dan was happy to make others feel included and to be able to share whatever he had with those close to his heart. Even in his final wishes, he wanted to share his body with science to help the future. I will try to take a lesson from Dan going forward: Share happiness with others so my life and others' lives can create joyful memories of love and kindness. A gentle soul like Dan is hard to come by, and he has left a heavy hole in our hearts. He will be missed by all those he touched in life. Tight hugs to Carrie (Odo, Guen, Spot, and Nillie). He will never leave your heart(s). -Meshell (Meow-Shell)

“ Daniel was my big brother and I'll never forget he would protect me from the scary ahopcart man in the parking lot of ShopRite. He also was funny and always made jokes and was very comical. Although Jayde his 6 year old niece hasn't gotten to meet him I will keep him alive and tell her story's of tree forts and playing in the woods together and swimming in pools and lakes and doing fun stuff brothers and sisters did. Daniel will be forever missed and forever in my memories. FLY HIGH AND MAY YOU FIND PEACE NOW DANIEL SEE YOU WHEN I GET THERE I LOVE YOU.
