“ Dear Pearl, So sorry for your loss words cannot express how one feels when they lose a child. It was hard enough to bear when we lost our beloved little Zachary at 8 yrs old who would now be 18 yrs old. I know that you are a strong person so just keep your faith and remember that we are always thinking of you.

“ I met Danielle when she was just a little girl in key west where my mother babysat her. She was like a little baby doll to me. Danielle grew up into a beautiful woman. I have not seen her in a few years in person only on Facebook which I remained in contact with . I don't know or understand the reason you left this world so abruptly but I'm sure you had your reasons and thought someone else needed you . God bless you Danielle we will meet again one day .

“ Danielle it is so hard to see you go. Seems like just yesterday I was in your living room floor in Key West changing your diaper along with Nadine Marie's (my daughter) at the same time. I watched you grow into a lovely girl before you left to Leesburg. You grew up to be a beautiful lady just like your mom. It's so hard to say goodbye, so I won't. See you soon! Love you and will miss you xoxox

“ Dear Pearl, Bruce, Dan and Family I can't tell you how shocked I was to hear about Danielle. She is such a beautiful girl an always was. I remember her in Key West and when she would come in the office with Yvette and Yvonne and she was so adorable. Can't forget when she made cheerleader either. I can't imagine the pain and hurt you all have in your hearts right now. You will need time to grieve and sift through all the memories but remember she is still with you in your hearts. My heart and prayers goes out to her husband and children. May the peace of God be with you all at this difficult time.

“ Pearl, I just wanted to say once again that you and Bruce are in my thoughts and prayers. Although I did not know your beloved daughter, Danielle, I can only imagine your sense of grief at the loss of your beautiful daughter at such a young age. Her photo reminds me so much of you when you were her age. My heart is with you.
