“ Daddy I think about you every single day not one goes by where you not heavy on my mind. We had a very complicated relationship but at times when we talked everyday or when you stopped by just to bring me little trinkets you thought Id enjoy I really wanted to be close to you, more then anything all I keep thinking of is our fight on the phone over money that someone needed and I didn't have hurtful words were said by each of us because we were angry I so wish I could go back to that moment and tell you that I love you very much. When you first passed away all of my dreams were of you, of us talking they were so vivid I wish I got to come see you, visit with you but I wasn't permitted to I'm sorry daddy and I miss you so very much and its very true sometimes you don't get a second chance to tell someone that you love them and that haunts you forever I just wanted to tell you how I feel and let you know I loved you...I hope it was ok to write this here jenny

“ David Brown, I have know you since as far as I can remember. I could not count the things that you have taught me to do from farming, plumbing, electrical work, building, tree cutting, roofing and the list goes on and on. As you always said, "A jack of all trades, master of none". I will always carry that knowledge with me and think of you often. You have made a mark in my life that will be there until the day that I meet you again. Rest in peace my friend, I love you Jim Bob! David Ivey

“ My deepest sympathy for his kids and grandkids and other family. David, you were always pretty fair when dealing with our kids and their shennanigans of being kids. I enjoyed our talks when you had the time. Your kids know that you were a Good Man. You are now free of this world, but know that you will be remembered by those that knew you. See you on the other side. RIP
