“ Fifty-six years of friendship with Dave (and Cletah) now finds us with an even bigger hole in our hearts. We shared the pleasure of our combined nine children through the growing-up days; marriages; grandchildren;----with laughter and tears, joy and sorrow, and many a game of Euchre along the way. We hope there are horseshoes in heaven. We will miss you, David. God speed.

“ Garen girls, I am so sorry for your loss. Your dad was always a character, pulling peoples chains, loved to laugh and always made you think. He prepared you for the world and taught you to be your own persons. He will be missed. In deepest sympathy, Susan

“ David and I shared a warm friendship as we walked our four miles together each morning for many years. My wife, Bev, and I both appreciated his good sense of humor. Dave took his responsibilities very seriously - especially when it involved his love of serving others. His passing is a loss to the neighborhood and we will miss him very much.
