

David Wayne Langford

September 22, 1960 - November 27, 2025

David Wayne Langford, 65, of Fruitland Park, Florida, passed away on November 27, 2025. He was born in Orlando, Florida, on September 22, 1960, to Wiley Sr. and Helen Langford. David was a longtime resident of Lake County and a man of strong faith. He attended and was active in many churches throughout the area, with Trinity Assembly of God in Fruitland Park being his final church home.

David was the owner and operator of Lake County Janitorial Services and proudly employed many family members and friends. His motto there was, “Work is good medicine.” He enjoyed watching football—especially the Florida Gators and the Miami Dolphins—but most of all, he cherished spending time with his family and grandchildren. His best advice to everyone was, “Just fill your heart with love.”

He is survived by his wife, Amy Langford of Fruitland Park, FL; his son, Justin (Amie) Langford; and five grandchildren: Ian Langford, Kaylynn Leapley, Collin Langford, Kenzie Langford, and Tiger Langford. He is also survived by his brother, Wiley Max Langford Jr sister, Brenda Bell, and daughter-in-law Tina Langford. He was preceded in death by his son, Jonathan (2022), his brother Scotty and both his parents.

A funeral service will be held on Friday, December 5, 2025, at 11:00 AM, with visitation from 10:30 to 11:00 AM, at Trinity Assembly of God Church, 200

Urick St., Fruitland Park, FL 34731, with Pastor Chuck Padgett officiating.
Interment will follow at Shiloh Cemetery.
