“ David was a neighbor and a very good friend to my wife, Vicky and I. One of the main things I always looked forward to was the good natured bantering that went on between David and I upon our arrival back to Florida. Things just won't be the same anymore. He was very loved by those who really knew him!

“ He was the best of the best, always a joke and a smile. The world would be a better place if there were more people like him. Godspeed.
