“ OUR SYMPATHY AND LOVE TO CAROL AND THE FAMILY. DAVE WAS A GREAT GUY AND WILL BE MISSED.

LIBBI/JIM COZART - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ I went to look at this site and saw no condolences just yet, so I thought I'd attempt to write something. My father was an amazing man who touched the lives of all he knew him. His wit, sense of humor, love of family, hard work ethic, lover of life, music, his wife, Carol, his children, grand children, and great grand children, many friends, extended family and people from all walks of life. He was called Pop Pop, kindly ole Mr. Mac, "brother dave" and "Mr. McAvoy" by many who knew him well. To me, he was Dad and I will love him always. I miss you Dad

Denise McAvoy Watson - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ Dave was one of the most fun loving people I know. He thoroughly enjoyed life and we are deeply saddened by the news. Our heartfelt condolences to Carol and all his family.

“ Although I did not know your loved one personally, I am truly sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in Gods promise found at Revelation 21:4- "And He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more..."

“ Dave was a great friend, fun guy to golf with and a great cook. We enjoyed Dave and Carol's company during the four years we lived in Pennbrooke , especially in our "guys do the cooking" dinner club. We did fifty dinners with row other couples over 48 months. Do you think we had fun!!!! Our love to carol and greetings to all other friends who read this post.

“ I knew Dave and Carol from karaoke. He was singing almost to the end and that is beautiful . He had a great voice and chose to sing the most uplifting songs. I will miss him up there on stage but he is in an even better place but I bet cha he is still singing . He has joined God's heavenly choir.
