“ Dear Rosalie, I wanted to send my deepest sympathy in the passing of your husband. I always remember the two of you walking up and down Woodland Ave. together. I could see how close the two of you were. And, I will never forget how kind you were to me when I was a new teacher doing my student teaching at Mary A. Wilson School and you worked in the school library. I wanted to extend my kindness to you and wish you peace during this difficult time. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Sincerely, Carla and Bill Ferko
