David Marc Richter, 74, passed away at home on Monday, October 19, 2015 in the Villages, Florida. Funeral service and burial will be held at the Florida National Cemetery in Bushnell on Wednesday, October 28, 2015 at 11:00 AM with Sheldon Skurow of Temple Shalom presiding.

David was born in the Bronx, New York to Gloria and Max Richter on June 27, 1941. He graduated from The Bronx High School of Science in 1958 and went on to earn a BS degree from Columbia University in 1962. David earned his MD from The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine and was stationed at McDill Air Force Base from 1972-1974. David practiced General Surgery in Broward County, Florida for 25 years. He enjoyed a number of hobbies including flying model airplanes, sculpting bonsai trees, fishing, and photography; David was an avid golfer all of his life.

David is survived by his wife of nearly 50 years, Miriam Richter of the Villages, FL; his daughter Amy Griffin of Bowie Maryland; his son, Michael Richter of Las Vegas, Nevada; his son-in-law Adisa Griffin; his daughter-in-law Chau Richter; and his two grandsons Myles Griffin and Kamron Richter. Memorial donations may be made to American Brain Tumor Association, 8550 W. Byrn Mawr Ave., Ste. 550, Chicago, IL 60631. The family wishes to extend their gratitude to Cornerstone Hospice and to all our friends in the Villages for their care and support.

David lived his life with humor, kindness and honesty; and, although the world seems a little less bright right now, it is with great joy that the family celebrates a life well lived.
