“ Dear Susi Family, I was so sad to hear about Dave's passing. He was a true gentleman. I'll always remember how kind and helpful he was to me when I started as a computer operator at EB some 40 years ago. I know he was dearly loved and will be sorely missed. Rachel and I offer our deepest sympathies to you all.

“ I was sadden by the news of Uncle Dave's passing. He and Aunt Barbara always had their home open to family and friends, that was important to him. They even took my sister and I in for a short time. Such big hearts. I remember his laugh, his big smile, makes me smile. I will truely miss him. My heart and prayers go out to Aunt Barbara, Linda and Scott and their families. I love you all.

“ Dave will certainly be missed around the recreation department. I remember both Barb and Dave coming in bringing little loaves of freshly baked breads at Christmas, Dave brought many smiles to both the young and older people he passed though in his lifetime.
