“ Larry, That lady of yours is so special. How amazing that she is truly walking with the Lord today!! In a blink of an eye, we will be there with her, but for now the Lord has work for you to do and he will lead you as you do it. It's a privilege for me to call you my friend and my brother. Love you man! Bill

“ Deana Greenwell was a name I have so many times over the years as a woman that was greatly admired by many. I often wondered how someone could make such a lasting Impression on do many lives. I finally got the chance to meet Deana last year when she and Larry came to our church. Our meeting was not by chance but by the God's doing. We shared many things together and even though Deana was sick, she always had a bright warm smile to meet me with. She and Larry prayed for me while we prayed for her and him. God knew exactly what he was doing when he brought us together and then I understood why so many people loved her. She is an amazing woman with an extraordinary husband. They are both a blessing to me. I love you Deana and will always keep you close to my heart. Thank you Heavenly Father for bringing Larry and Deana into my life.

“ The photo was taken when nine of us went to the Bahamas. We had lots of fun and Deana was such a jokester. I am so sorry, Larry. I guess we can only hope that she is now in a peaceful and pain free place. Love....

“ Aunt Deana, Words cannot compel my feelings of your passing. I will always remember our outings of fishing, traveling, digging for arrow heads and much more. Each time I visited you, it was always an adventure. I love you; the strong, adventurous, and beautiful person you were to so many. I know you are free of pain and safe with Jesus. You are in my heart until we meet again. Uncle Larry, Your strength to overcome the trials you've faced leaves me in awe. I pray the healing begins as family floods you with love and support. Thank you for caring for my aunt in her time of need. We are blessed to have a man of your character in our lives as was she. I love you. Shavon Walter
