“ Seven Years Later, Still Remembering

It's been seven years since my mom passed, and not a day goes by that I don't think of her. Her life wasn't perfect—but her faith was steady, especially in her final years. Quiet, honest, and real.

I recently wrote a reflection about her faith and why I believe she's with Jesus now.

If you'd like to read it, here it is:

Thanks for remembering her with me.

“ I am so sorry for the passing of Deanne, my condolences to the Cotes and Family. I too recently lost a loved one, and what brought me comfort was Gods promise for the future at Revelation 21:4- And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore the former things have passed away. I hope this brings u comfort as well .
