“ *Though nothing can bring back the hour
Of splendour in the grass,
of glory in the flower;
We will grieve not, rather find
Strength in what remains behind;
In the primal sympathy
Which having been must ever be;
In the soothing thoughts that spring
Out of human suffering;
In the faith that looks through death,
In years that bring the philosophic mind.*” So shocked and saddened. We love your family and watching the girls grow up was such a joy. The words above always help me through grief. XO, Judy With much love from all of us, Cris, Judy, Katie and Jessica Peck “ Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy. No words can heal your pain, but do know she loved you. It always showed. Jon, Nikki, Kenadi, & Kam Moody

“ I was deeply saddened when I heard the news. I was with my own family, daughter, son-in-law, grandchildren and husband. I could not believe what I was hearing. I did not get the chance to meet Debbie, although I wanted to someday. I can never imagine what you are going through, but from what I have heard know that in your heart Debbie was happy. She loved her life. My heart goes out to all of you in this tough time. ---- Sister to Mary Kerwin.

“ It's so hard to find words to tell someone how sorry you are for your loss when that someone who has passed still had so much to do with her family and friends. I can tell you thru experience that there is light at the end of this tunnel and when you see it believe. The Lord and his angels work in mysterious ways and they will help you all to get thru this tragic loss and move on, but you have to believe. If you believe it will happen!! He has sent you some awesome friends and family members and lean on them whenever you need too. Bobby and I are here for you and please call whenever you need too -- that's what friends do!! Our prayers and our friendship is here for you to take advantage of when needed. God bless and be strong for each other.

“ My wife Elmira and I wish to express our condolences for your loss .
Our prayers and thoughts are with you and your family.

I met Debbie via video confrence about 2 years ago when my sister Mary Kerwin introduced me to her as Uncle Rob from Germany.

I remember her smile and laughter as we talked. We only talked twice but we both hoped to meet one another someday.

Well Debbie, it will be a bit longer than we planned. But I do believe the time will come when we will meet... and laugh again!

Love, Uncle Rob and Aunt Elmira

“ Deb was a very special person to both myself and my family. She was always gracious and kind and added a certain light to everyone she met. She was a loving wife, mother and grandmother. How lucky we are to have known and loved her these past 5 years! To her extended family, we offer our heartfelt sympathy and wish them peace in the days to come.

“ My wife Elmira and I wish to express our condolences for your loss. Our prayers and thoughts are with your family during this time of grief. I met Debbie about two years ago when my sister, Mary Kerwin, introduced me to Debbie, via Skype, as her Uncle Rob from Germany. I remember her smile and laughter as we talked. We only spoke twice to each other but we parted hoping to some day meet. Well Debbie, that meeting will take just a little more time than we thought. But I do believe it will come to pass... and we will laugh again! Love, Uncle Rob
