“ Debbie, I will always remember you reaching out to me when my husband passed away, your words were so kind and comforting; having walked the same walk you knew the heartache I was experiencing. I feel so blessed to have known you, so touched by your kindness, I know you will be missed by many. I have special memories from my childhood watching you and Nancy put on make-up, curling your hair and spending time together after church. You were my beautiful cousin and I always looked up to you. Heaven has received a special Angel. I will continue to pray for your family, they need strength during this difficult time, I know they will always hold you close in their hearts, help give them Peace, love you.

“ I pray that the family will turn to God at this time for He can comfort you now and in days ahead. God had loaned her to us for awhile and now He needed her again. She had a mission here on earth and it was through. We must try to remember the happy things she taught us and not be sad because she wouldn't want us to be. Just keep her in your hearts if she has touched you. May God Always Be With you. I will miss her. See you later. Sandy (cousin)

“ Debbie will truly be missed. I first met her when my Granny Martha Davis was ill, she mad me feel so welcome and was there to help comfort me during such a difficult time. I met her again with my Dad, Frank Davis at his beach house she again was there to help my Dad and I mend outr relationship. She was a very special person to me that often shared encouraging words. During her illness when I would speak to her and knew how she felt bad she always sounded like she was doing great. She was a person who always wanted to help others and wanted no one to worry about her. God gained an angle when he took her from this world. Love you Debbie.

“ I am so glad I got to visit with Debbie when I did. We were able to laugh and remember things from our past as children growing up. Debbie had been on my prayer list since the beginning of her illness until she went home to be with the lord. One day we will see each other again and what a reunion that wi be. Our days of playing dress up and whatever else we could get into will be insignificant we will only want to bask in his glory. I'ove you, your cousin Joyce
