

Delfino Albarran

December 24, 1930 - February 16, 2020

Delfino Albarran, 89 of Webster, FL passed away on Sunday, February 16, 2020 in Bushnell, FL. He was born on December 24, 1930 in Estado de Mexico.

He was survived by his children Santos Albarran(Yolanda), Jose Albarran(Sara), Maria Albarran, Fermin Albarran(Santos), Lilia Albarran, Carolina Albarran, Elvia Martínez(Catalino), Reina Albarran, Cecilia Garduño(Jose), Yolanda Albarran, Epifania Albarran(Francisco), Pancho Albarran(Nelva), Félix Albarran(Mireya), Norma Albarran, Javier Albarran(Carmina). He was loved by his 77 grandchildren and blessed with many great-grandchildren.

Delfino immigrated to the United States in 1983. He worked in agriculture for many years. When he could no longer work he would try to keep himself busy by cleaning outside the house. One lesson he always taught his children is to be responsible and hard working people. His son, Pancho Albarran, remembers his father saying "work hard as if your boss was always watching you."

He was a man that was devoted to his Catholic faith. He prayed a couple times a day where he would always ask God to protect his children. He prepared himself spiritually till the time of his passing.

His children and grandchildren had many memories with him. He made sure to teach his grandchildren his hard work ethics. One fond memory that his beloved daughter Carolina Albarran had was that she enjoyed his company and the good times they had. That is something she will cherish for the rest of her life. He enjoyed watching tv one or two times a day. His favorite restaurants were Chinese, Golden Corral and KFC. He also loved to sit outside and enjoy the beautiful weather.

Delfino passed away peacefully surrounded by his beloved family. His children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and friends will miss him dearly.
