

Dorrie Taylor White

August 26, 1949 - February 2, 2023

Delores (Dorrie) Taylor White passed on to her heavenly home on February 2, 2023. She was the daughter of the late Edward and Eleanor Luksa. She was also preceded in death by a brother, Edward Luksa, Jr. and two husbands, Robert Taylor and Robert White Sr.

She attended Kingston schools and received a teaching degree from Millersville University. After graduating she taught Kindergarten and First Grade at Wyoming Valle West until her retirement. She loved being a “snowbird” for many years. She considered it a blessing to have family and friends in PA and FL.

Dorrie accepted Jesus as her Savior along with her first husband on April 24, 1977 and continued to serve him in churches in Pennsylvania and Florida.

Dorrie is survived by a sister Debi Ostrum and her husband Dan, a brother Joe Luksa and his wife Jenn and a sister-in-law Joan Luksa, brothers-in-law: Ronald Barry White and George White. She was honored to be a stepmother to: Bob White Jr., Freeman White, Van White, Laura Hall and Tommy. Special to her were all her nieces and nephews and friends.

Children’s books were treasured by her, so in lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Hoyt Library at 284 Wyoming Ave., Kingston,

PA 18704 or your local children's library.

A local Celebration of Life for Dorrie will be held on Monday, February 13th at 11:00 AM at First Baptist Church Bushnell Sanctuary with Pastor Doug Watkins officiating.

On February 18, 2023 a Celebration of Life will be held at Plaid Community Church at 1575 River Road, Pittston, PA 18640, from 6:00pm-7:00pm with a gathering for friends and family from 4:00pm to 6:00pm. Pastor Stan Oschman will be officiating.

Dorrie, you be missed by so many people here in Dogwood MHP. You were such an inspiration to so many people. Your beautiful smile and words of encouragement touched so many lives and having you on our shuffleboard league was definetley a big plus and you made bingo so much fun on Fridays. I miss you dear friend.

“ I was lucky enough to have known my Aunt Dorrie for my entire life. As shared by my brother she was a constant influence in my life. Over the years she helped and taught me a lot as she has done for many others. To have her in my life was a gift. I'll miss you and love you forever Aunt Dorrie.

“ I don't know what to say about my Aunt Dorrie. She was an ever present influence in my life growing up, and a kind, funny, loving person who also wasn't afraid to poke fun or take things too seriously. She encouraged us to be the best people we could, and made it a mission of hers to be an example of how to care for others. She is gone too soon from a world that could use more people like her. I love you and I miss you Aunt Do.

“ My wife and I met Dorrie and her first husband when I was called to pastor the Wyoming Valley Baptist Chapel in Wilkes-Barre, PA in 1982. I have, to this day, never known a more vibrant and constant witness to the cause of Christ than this beautiful lady. She was the most giving individual, the most caring lady who genuinely loved people. I can honestly say that she ministered to us as a family in more ways than I can express. Our family is deeply saddened by her passing, but we are today celebrating her home-going to be with her Lord.

“ First met Dorie and Whitey up at Frances Slocum State Park. Both of them were loving christians eager to spread God's Word. As time went on, we became close friends sharing our ups and downs with God holding our hands. She became instrumental in passing a "moment of Encouragement" from Pastor Doug to me while in Florida as i passed it on here in Pennsylvania. We were texting when she called the ambulance and also texting when she said she couldn't breathe. There will be a special room up there for this remarkable woman who i miss immensely. love you Dorie; rest in peace
