

Dempsey Paul Milliken

May 20, 1941 - June 7, 2012

Dempsey Paul Milliken. Husband of Frankie Lee Milliken, father of Daniel and Katherin Milliken died June 7, 2012

Dempsey was born in Missouri on May 20, 1941. His family then moved to Michigan. After an accident that took his father and brother, Dempsey wandered around the country for a while finding himself. He ended up joining the US Navy where he was stationed on an aircraft carrier, and he traveled to different countries and experienced many different cultures.

While on leave visiting family in Michigan he met and fell in love with Miss Frankie Powell. After a short courtship they married, and she joined him in Washington State.

After Dempsey's enlistment was over, they moved to Michigan and had two children, Daniel and Katherin Milliken.

They decided to move to Florida and bought a piece of property in Lake County where Dempsey lived until his death.

He is survived by his wife Frankie and children Daniel and Katherin.
