In Dedication of Denelda Joan Armstrong:

I’m Only In The Other Room

My Father called and I’m sorry I have to leave.

It's okay, I know you love me when you grieve.
I'm now standing in glory with God and that, you must believe.
There will be times when you'll wish I was back but just remember this:
I'm only in the other room,
The one my Master made for me.
I'm only in the other room,
That space in your hearts you saved, just for me.
I'm only in the other room;
I love you each, a love should be.
There'll come a time when we'll reunite...
It's in the other room.
