“ To all the children of Dennis and Ann, and to Ann, I extend my deepest sympathy for your loss. I loved Dennis like a brother and enjoyed visiting the both of them, so many times, when in their area, as well as, enjoyed having them visit me in my home. They were two great people and will surely be missed. They thought nothing of jumping in the car and coming for a weekend, a wedding, a college graduation, or any get-together. I will miss him, and even his phone calls, very much and know all of you will, as well. They had a great life together, they did not leave many leaves unturned. I pray God will fill your void and loss with His Overflowing and Everlasting Love. I pray you will feel the warmth of His Love as He holds you close during this time.
