“ Dear Aunt Sharon, I will always remember what a sweet, sweet love that you and Uncle Bob have. My prayer for you in the coming days, is that you know he is now whole in the arms of Jesus. Also praying for precious memories to flood your mind and heart so that you feel Uncle Bob close to you. His smile is so contagious it makes me long for Heaven. For now, ‘...THOSE WHO HOPE IN THE LORD WILL RENEW THEIR STRENGTH. THEY WILL SOAR ON WINGS LIKE EAGLES; THEY WILL RUN AND NOT GROW WEARY, THEY WILL WALK AND NOT BE FAINT.’

I love y'all,

SHARON (FOX) JUDWAY

“ So until I was 30, I didn't know Bob existed. Imagine my shock. I've been searching for an answer my whole life of who I am? Where did I come from? I always seemed to know that there were some pieces missing. So I was very interested in meeting him. I was able to visit him twice before some things out of both of our control happened and I made an irrational decision to not have him in my life. That burning desire to know who I was never went away. Due to modern advances in science, I did a DNA test. The first person I was able to connect with was Rene Kaveria. I was proud to know her as my niece. Rene shared with me many things that I didn't know. It peaked my interest even more. So making contact with the twins was my first step in getting to reconnect with Bob. I remember them being very protective of him. I never realized the hurt my decision made. I have siblings that just so happened to live very close so I had an opportunity to pay him a visit. I believe the Lord paved the way for that. I got to spend a couple of afternoons with him. So here we are celebrating his life. I'm proud to say he was my dad. I have lots of siblings, cousins, nieces, uncles and aunts. I know you are grieving his loss. There's no expiration on grief. But just know that he is with the King Of Kings now. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. If you want to see him again, just ask Jesus into your life. Surrender your life and serve Him. May God bless you and keep you. Bryan David Rice. Eldest son of Bob Dewey Combs.
