“ Diana is going to be missed. She was fun to be with and never complained. She was always good when you said "how are you Diana". She was a doer and just kept going and tried to be positive even during her illness. I remember the plastic bag holder that she made and gave me one. She was a very talented lady and a lady to be admired. RIP Diana.

“ First of all, my sincere condolences to Diana's family. I will remember Diana as a courageous women who never complained and just carried on. Even when she couldn't come to Operation Shoebox anymore, she still sent her contributions and wanted to do her part. She was a kind lovely women and I will think of her with a smile as well as her wonderful family.
