

Diana Margolis

March 3, 2011

Obituary of Diana Margolis

Diana Lauter Margolis

Diana Lauter Margolis, 90, of Lady Lake, died Thursday, March 3, 2011. Diana was born and raised in New York City. She earned a Bachelors Degree from Hunter College in New York and a Masters from Nova University in Florida. Her career as a teacher was her true passion. She was always able to see the potential of her students and worked diligently to make them not only successful, but able to see the potential in themselves. After teaching for many years in Rochester, New York, she moved to South Florida and taught at Deerfield Beach Middle School then relocated to Yalaha, Florida, where she taught at Groveland High School, was Dean at Mt Dora High and eventually retiring from her position as a Curriculum Specialist with the Lake County Schools System. She was a Catholic and after retirement turned her energy to helping in the community. Though her favorite was delivering for Meals on Wheels, she was also active with the Silver Haired Legislators, First Flight at Health First and the Health First Hospital Auxiliary. Diana is survived by her two sons, William J Lauter of Smyrna, GA and Robert S Lauter of Boca Raton; one daughter, Diane L (Thomas) Keedy of Lady Lake; and three grandchildren, Christian, Heather and Katie Lauter. Inurnment will be at a later date in Valhalla, NY. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be sent to The Alzheimers Association or Hospice of Marion County, Inc.

Interment

Inurnment will be at a later date in Valhalla, NY

Memorial Donations

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be sent to The Alzheimers Association or Hospice of Marion County, Inc.

Tribute Wall

CR

“ Diana was "my third mother"! She wrote the grant that got me my favorite teaching job. She was very SPECIAL & IMPORTANT to many of us educators. I have many fond memories of times we shared...her perfume, her yellow car, her beautiful homes, her uniqueness. I know Diana is PARTYING up there.

Candi Robb - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM