“ Diane took me into her home a long time ago when I needed to work out things with my family. She treated me like her own. I never felt like an inconvenience. She bought me clothes & food. But most of all she listened and did not judge. I continued to send prayers and have tried to live my life giving the same kindness. She was loved & did make a difference. I hope you all find peace. Know she is still in your hearts. Sincerely, Kris (Johnston) ”
