“ It is a shame for a life to be cut so short, but we are not in control in that matter. There is a reason why things happen, but we never know why. I lost touch with Dianne over the years, but I have fond memories of our earlier years together; high school, wedding parties and the birth of our children. I know she had a loving husband and family and was happy that she was not alone. God Bless to the Langan and Jones families. I am so sorry for your loss.
