“ I a sorry Sam and Carol for your loss. You had a wonderful mother and always remember the good times. I just want to say something to Mom. I miss you already Momma Dolly. Thank you for taking care of Dad and always being there when I called and when we all came to visit you, especially playing cards. You put up with all of us and I know that was hard. Thank you for your cooking and caring. We had wonderful visits when you came to Jersey with Dad too. May God bless you and may you rest in peace. You are home now. Til we meet again. Love Cynthia
