“ Doris: Bill and I are so very sorry for the loss of Don, he put up a good fight. We loved him and he sure enjoyed sour dough bread and I enjoyed making it for him. We know where he is now, in a better place and looking down on us, saying, never give up the fight of cancer. It is a hard thing if one's life. God Bless and keep all the family safe and we are in sorrow with them.

“ Dear Cheryl, Becky, Mike and Teen, I still remember the day when Cheryl told me that there was more to the pain in your dad's shoulder than what was originally thought and what a long and painful struggle it was from then on for your dad and what a sadness for all of you...I think you found the best adjective for him - He was such a champion, he didn't complain a whole lot and fought to the end! I hope that you all find peace soon and know that he is in a perfect place with your mom beside him once again admiring the four of you and all yours - who remain their treasures on earth! With love from Rich and Simone Rose (Castle Rock)

“ Although I never made his acquaintance, I feel as if I had known Tina's dad based on our many conversations. We have shared stories of our youth, our observations and concerns for our parents, and our admiration for them. It is obvious that Donald Bono was a devoted father, grandfather and husband. He proudly served his country and worked hard for his family. To know the love his family has for him is remark- able. Although his will to remain on earth was incredibly strong, he now can truly rest and be with those that have gone before him. Please take comfort in that. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. God bless..

“ Mike, We are very sorry to here of the loss of your father. Our thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family. Throughout our chats over the last several months it was clear that your dad fought the good fight. Romans 8:38-39 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in creation, will be able to seperate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
