“ Dear Carr Family, I am sorry for this loss of this young man. My name is Winter, I am a Bible Student offering comfort to my neighbors from the Scriptues. I know that the griveing process can continue for a while. I have learned not to rush it. To help this process and to get from day to day, I read the following scriptures. The really help. Don't just read them, think about them and pray about them and your feelings to God. Start with John 5:28-29 and read Jesus promise to us. Then Acts 24:15 this reminds us of Jesus promise. Next, Acts 17:31 tells us who gave us this gurantee. Finally, Revelation 21:4 helps us to see what will happen to death. My condolences. Sincerely, Winter
