Obituary of Donald Harshbarger

Donald Harshbarger, 95, of Leesburg, FL, formerly of Melbourne, FL and Greenville, OH passed on Wednesday, December 9, 2015. On December 23, 1919 he was born in Newton Township, Miami County, Ohio. Don is survived by his loving wife of 71 years, Lucy; son, Nick and daughter-in-law, Pat of Leesburg, FL; daughter, Sandy of Covington, OH; 9 grandchildren and step-grandchildren; and 13 great-grandchildren and step great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a daughter, Marcia Clark of VA and 9 siblings. He served his country during WWII in the Army of the United States in New Guinea and was a disabled vet. Don loved working with wood, he farmed, and worked in several factories. Don and Lucy were avid square dancers. He was well known for his roller skating abilities in the mornings at Palmore Park. The family will not hold a formal service per his request. In lieu of flowers, please send a donation to your favorite charity, or donate to the new children's playground in Palmore Park. For donations please write a check and send to City of Leesburg, c/o Don Harshbarger Venetian Gardens Improvement Fund. A plaque will be put up in the children's area to encourage others to have fun and enjoy play and exercise.

“ Dad, There's no doubt that you are now skating in heaven with Marica and having a great time. It's sad to not have you here anymore, but we thank The Lord that you are no longer in pain. Mom is fine and we will take good care of her for you. We love you!
