“ Dear Mrs. Oates and Family, My name is Winter I am a participant in an international volunteer work . I am so sorry for your loss. In my work I offer comfort from the Scriptures to families that have lost their loved ones in death. An example of what I share is at Isaiah 25:8,9-He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken [it]. 9 And in that day one will certainly say: "Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him." Did you notice that it said death will be swallowed up? Imagine no more dying! Another Scripture is at John 5:28-29, it reads:Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." This verse is good news because it promises those that have died will be resurrected to life on a paradise earth.(Psalm 37:29) Reading these Scriptures have helped me get through the grieving process. I am confident they will comfort you also. Very Truly, Winter Gainey
