Obituary of Donald Vargo

Donald Joseph Vargo, 84 of The Villages, Florida, passed away on August 5, 2014. Beloved husband for 57 years to Loretta (nee Smith). Cherished father of Terrence (Charlene McDonald), Jacqueline, Michelle (Tom Gregory), Timothy (Rebecca), Daniel (Pamela), and Carolyn (John Majowka). Son of the late Joseph and Josephine. Brother to Jack, Lenny, Jim, Evelyn, Rita and Marie. Loving grandfather of Caitlin, Rachel, Sarah, Nicholas, Josie, Simon, and Alexandra. Don earned a Masters degree in physics from John Carroll University, and was a physicist at NASA Lewis Research Center in Cleveland, NASA Headquarters in Washington D.C., and NASA Goddard Space Flight Center in Greenbelt, Maryland. The majority of his career was devoted to transferring NASA technology to industry for the advancement of scientific and medical products and services. He played a key role in the development of the maceration probe at NASA Lewis Research Center, which contributed to the eventual design of laser surgical instruments used in cataract surgery. An active member of the Catholic church, Don participated in the choir, served as a Eucharistic minister, headed the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, and led several bible study groups. He enjoyed golf and provided free tax preparation services while living in The Villages. Don donated his body to medical research.

“ I was saddened to read about Don's death in the Washington Post. When I mentioned him and Loretta after Mass, the first thing someone said was, "Remember those beautiful cookies Loretta made?" We haven't forgotten you at St. Mary's. You've been missed. Our hearts go out to all of you.

“ Although we only had the pleasure of knowing Don a short time it took me only a few mintues to realize he was an outstanding person. His love of life coupled with his love of his wife and family was immediatly evident. He was a man of great qualities and values and he will be missed by many yet I know he is at peace with the Lord and watching out for us from heaven. Our sincere condolences to his family and his lovely wife Loretta. Rest in Peace my friend. I like many who knew you can say "it was a pleasure to have known you." Jack and Judy
