Obituary of Donna Wilson Janiak

Donna Gail Wilson Janiak, 76 of Lady Lake, Florida, formerly of Lansing, Illinois, died peacefully on December 6, 2014. Born July 8, 1938 in Harvey, Illinois, she was the daughter of Edra Ava Jones and Carl Jackson Millsap and sister to Judy Brunhke, now deceased. Donna was married to her late husband, Richard Joseph Janiak for 25 years.

Donna was a bookkeeper for construction companies most of her career before she retired to Loda, Illinois. She then moved to warmer climes and took residence in the Water Oak Community in Lady Lake, Florida in 2000. Donna lived a full life and cherished her family and friends. She enjoyed golf and she was an active member of the Water Oak family. Donna loved to travel, especially cruising where she fulfilled her dream of seeing the world. Donna was a great dog lover and generously donated to the Humane Society and ASPCA. Her beloved companion, Gizmo brought her much joy and sadly passed before her.

Survivors include her daughter, Cheryl Geib- Lizak of Lady Lake, FL and son Richard L. Sheridan Jr. of Leesburg, FL and grandchildren, Michael Geib, Amanda Weaver, Richard Sheridan and Grant Sheridan and great-grandchildren, Andraya Sheridan, Trevor Weaver and Ava Geib. She is also survived by nieces Pamela Bruhnke, Bambi Conrad and Robin Prince and nephew Dana Bruhnke and half-brother, Roy Millsap.

Donna will be cremated and have her ashes scattered in Bayles Lake in Loda, Illinois by her family. Per her wishes, there will be no memorial service.

In celebration of Donna's life, friends and relatives may make donations in her memory to a local no-kill animal shelters, pet foster and adoption organizations or the Humane Society or ASPCA.
