“ We are so sorry for your loss but know she is in God's loving arms. She is reunited with those she loved and lost. Donna was a great cousin. We shared happy times growing up in a loving, extended family. I cherish those memories. I wish I could be there in person, but I am present in spirit. Though I was not there to sing some old Irish songs with Donna and Darlene in the last days, my heart was there with them. May God bless the family and keep them comforted.
