

Doris "Jean" Blocker

January 12, 1939 - August 19, 2024

With sadness, we are brought to the realization of just how fleeting life can be. My grandmother, our beloved Doris "Jean" Blocker, passed away at 85 years old on August 19th, 2024, in her home surrounded by family. She enjoyed old Western movies, soap operas, cooking, and reading. Both were born and raised in Richlands, Virginia. Daughter of Etta Jeanette Crawford. Preceded in death by her mother, Etta Jeanette Crawford; husband, James Edgar Blocker; her oldest son, Randall Eugene Kiser; and her son-in-law, Wayne Keith Ackerman. She retired as a manager at a convenience store in Florida. She enjoyed life with her family and friends.

Survivors include her daughter Sharon Ackerman, her youngest son Kenneth Kiser, her 8 grandchildren, and 11 great-grandchildren. She was very loved by many additional adopted children throughout the years as well as several other friends and family members.
