Obituary of DORIS CANFIELD

Doris (Manion) Canfield, wife of over 60 years to George Otis Canfield, of Altoona, Florida, passed away January 16, 2012, at 83, surrounded by her family.

Born May 12, 1928, daughter of Alma (Strohacker) and Nicholas J. Manion, she was predeceased by her brother Robert C. Manion. Doris was always willing to extend a helping hand to those in need, and was a valued member of the communities in which she lived. While living in Spruce Creek she was an active member of Fruitland Park Methodist Church. Doris also loved line dancing, tennis, rug braiding and chair caning. She blessed many lives and will be missed by her loving family and many dear friends.

Doris was the loving mother of three-Curtis A. Canfield, Chris K. Canfield and his wife Mary-kay, and Karen L. Canfield-and the cherished grandmother of Brendan, Kirsten, and Hanna Canfield. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews.
