“ There are so many wonderful memories that I can share about the amazing woman Doris Hollinger, my grandmother, that we call Mom. One memory of her that has an everlasting effect on me was when I was a small child and my dad would take me over to her and my papa's house very early in the morning so he could go to work. I would go climb in bed with her and my papa. I would wake up to the smell of her cooking bacon and know it was time to get up and get ready for school. We would eat breakfast together and then they would walk me down the dirt road they lived on to the old school house, Altoona Elementary. I of course did not realize at that time what an incredible memory we were creating with one another. I am so blessed to have such amazing memories with her that will last a lifetime.

I thank my God upon every remembrance of you. | Philippians 1:3
