“ Daurice you will be missed. I am only sorry that I did not know until recently that you lived in Florida I would have made the trip to see you. You instilled in my a love for Dancing. You taught me that I could be the best I could be and still enjoy it. You also instilled in me a love for the Drum and Bugle Corp also. R.I.P. May the Lord remember you always.

“ As we say Good-By to you tomorrow and as you go to be reunited with your beloved Mr.Mack, know that you, Daurice have been a good friend. I admire your spirit, dedication, and drive to give your all to the over 10,000 children you have taught throughout your 91 year lifetime. You always said "The Children were your Life" - and with your love, training both in dance and performance skills, - Their Personal Successes in Life will become your Legacy. Dancingly Yours, Daurice!!- You will be Remembered, You are Loved, and You will be Missed. Sandra Maciejewski, Daurice's friend!

“ Connie and family, We just wanted to let you know how much Ms. Dearice touched our lives and how much Taylor loved dancing for Mis. Daurice. Though we only knew her for two years, she sure touch our lives and will be greatly missed. I do not know what we are going to do on Tuesday nights. I am so glad we were able to celebrate her birthday at last year's recital with her dancing kids, she truly was happy. I know that she is with Mac now and dancing up a storm. I will be praying for you and your family during this time! Love, Lori, Todd & Taylor Buonasera

“ Daurice did not need a last name, she was a one name icon long before those in Hollywood. Daurice was my dance and twirling instructor. She loved us all and made use believe that we were very talented if we were talented or not (I was not). I was in the group that went to Atlantic City in a snowstorm to audition. I was also fortunate enough to be part of the first group that performed in Atlantic City. Duarice took us everywhere for competitions and to perform. She taught us respect, tolerance and acceptance. It did not matter if you were tall or short, thin or heavy, talented or not. Daurice was one of a kind!

“Daurice was a wonderful women. I danced with her for all of my youth right up until my son was born and she moved to FL. I was lucky to be able to see her this past Dec and was so full of joy when I saw how full of life she was. I went with her when she went to teach her current students. She will be missed by so many dancers past and present. I love her and miss her ver much. Sue
