“ Final thoughts to my Mom,I admire your toleranc,patience,caring for people before yourself,I admire your love for your home,the way you welcomed all of us and made us feel comfortable.I admire you never wanting to get your hair wet in the rain and always wanting to look beautiful. I admire the relationship you had with your brothers and sisters,no matter what,you listened to each other and loved one another. Mom, I cherish the late night phone calls we shared. Telling each other our inner most thoughts and disappointments.Most of all our dreams.And last of all you would always end the conversation by saying -miss you Sal-Love you.So in closing I will simply say-miss you mom-Love you
