Obituary of Doris Reynolds

Doris Gray Reynolds, 92, of The Villages, passed away Thursday, May 5 at her home in the village of Dunedin. She was born in Danville, VA on November 10, 1923. She moved to The Villages in July, 2015, and lived with her daughter, Karen Reynolds Gammons, and devoted son-in-law, Jerry Gammons. She is also survived by her son, Michael Gray Reynolds of Peachtree City GA, grandson, Christopher Reynolds of Peachtree City and Granddaughter Nicole Reynolds of Queens, NY. She was predeceased by her husband, Linwood Reynolds, Jr. They were married almost fifty years.

She was a great cook and made beautiful clothes and baskets and many other beautiful crafts. She was a great listener and remembered everything! She was a wonderful, hard working lady who helped her husband farm for many years. Her family will take her back to Virginia to be buried beside her husband.

“ Aunt Doris was a beautiful woman and will be missed by all who loved her. She was a big part of my life growing up and I'm very appreciative. I remember singing "Calendar Girl" in the stairs of the farmhouse with Karen - times visiting with them were always fun times. ###GESTURE###

“ What a sweet tribute! She was a lovely woman and I am so blessed to have met her. She reminded me of my Mom in many ways and they both loved their chocolate...:-) I know you are missing her in the worst way and we've so sorry. With Love, Dave and Linda
