

Doris Rowe

September 7, 1914 - July 10, 2013

Obituary of Doris Rowe

Doris Idell Rowe, 98, of Sumterville, FL, died Wednesday, July 10, 2013 at Vero Beach, FL. She was born September 7, 1914 in Webster, FL. She was a receptionist and a member of Trinity Baptist Church, Coleman, FL. Mrs. Rowe enjoyed going to church, reading her Bible, sewing, playing cards and BINGO with friends, and doing word searches.

She is survived by her daughters, Shirley Hurst of Sumterville, FL, Barbara (Fred) Radebach of Sebastian, FL, and Linda (Ron) Leonard of Liberty, TX; 15 grandchildren, 26 great-grandchildren, and 10 great, great-grandchildren; and sister-in-laws, Belle King of Sumterville, FL, and Vera Beach of Leesburg, FL.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Larkin Rowe; son, J.L. Rowe; grandsons, Billy & Joey Wertz, and Freddie Radebach; and great-granddaughter, Kourteney Lynn Fowler.

Visitation

A Visitation will be held at Trinity Baptist Church, Coleman, FL on Monday, July 15, 2013 from 12 - 1 PM.

Services

Services will follow at 1:00 PM with Pastor Mark Reichard and Pastor Emery King presiding.

Interment

Interment will follow at Adamsville Cemetery.

Donations

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Trinity Baptist Church, 3305 E. CR 468, Wildwood, FL 34785; or Faith Baptist Church, 8099 Hwy 471, Webster, FL 33597.

Tribute Wall

“ Doris Rowe

October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ I never saw doris without a smile on her face or without a hug and an encouraging word. Prayers of peace and comfort. Godspeed sweet lady.

JANIE DIXON - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ Nanny you will be so missed...you welcomed me with open arms and treated me as i was your own child...you loved me unconditional...i know you are more happy now...But doesnt ease the pain of knowing you are gone....BUT I WILL SEE YOU AGAIN....

Sandra Hurst - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM