“ Ms Dorothy Barth was above all else a fine Lady. She spent many a day with my parents in Allendale, South Carolina, hunting deer, turkey, and wild boar. I bet few people know Ms. Dorothy was a "Dead on crack shot with a rifle". Ms. Dorothy and her beloved dog, Buttons, would come over to Moms to enjoy a mean game of cards, a gathering of the "Red Hat Ladies", a smoke, a good cup of coffee (if it was before 5), a margarita (if it was after five), a sunset, but mostly just fellowship between friends. Yes, Ms. Dorothy was such a wonderful friend! I will miss many that made hunting in South Carolina very special, so you my friend tell everyone "Hi", and have a nice "CHEERS". (Of course, only if it's after 5:00, like a proper Southern Lady).
