

Dwight Bruce

November 17, 1929 - February 5, 2010

Obituary of Dwight Bruce

DWIGHT RAYMOND BRUCE, 80, of Lake Panasoffkee, Florida, died Friday, February 5, 2010 at Inverness, FL. He was born November 17, 1929 in Pikeville, Kentucky. He moved to Sumter County in 1983 from Tampa. He worked as a Painter. He was a member of the VFW in Lake Panasoffkee.

He is survived by his son, David Wilson of Barackville, WV; sister, Virginia (William) Bruce-Renner of Belpre, OH; nephew, Bill Renner of Columbus, OH.

Services

Graveside Services will be held at the Florida National Cemetery, Bushnell, FL, on Tuesday, February 23, 2010 at 10:00 am.

Tribute Wall

JS

“ Dwight was a VERY DEAR FRIEND of Eleanor and me and he will be greatly missed. He also was a Comrade. We will be there at the National Cemetary when the arrangements have been made. Joe and Eleanor

Joseph and Eleanor Schott - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM

KB

“ Im in deep shock over uncle dwights passsing, I Loved him beyond any words, could ever speak..my heart aches and I feell so empty and alone inside. as many of you know uncle dwight made me feel accepted into the family, never spoke unkind words and truely an unspoken hero. He truely has touched my life and my spirit and I am forever grateful and a better person to have had him in my life..I sadly miss him sooo

Karen Boyer - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM