

E. Tyner

September 8, 2010

Obituary of E. Tyner

E. David Tyner, 69, of Williamsburg, Va, a native of Dade City, FL, passed away on Wednesday, September 8, 2010. David received his Bachelor of Science and Juris Doctor degrees from Stetson University in 1967 and practiced law in Florida for more than 35 years. He was an avid hunter and fisherman.

Davis is preceded in death by his parents, Elbert and Helen Tyner, and his daughter, Kimberly Tyner. David is survived by his daughter, Laura Barrow and her husband Joe of Williamsburg, VA; grandchildren, Rachel and Andrew Barrow; sister, Annette Moore of Tampa, FL; niece Alicia Stromsness and her husband Randy; nephew David Moore and his wife Alex; and a great nephew and niece.

Visitation

The family will receive visitors at Purcell Funeral Home in Bushnell, FL from 5:00 - 7:00 pm on Saturday, September 11, 2010.

Services

A graveside service will be held on Sunday, September 12, 2010 at 2:00 pm.

Memorials

Those wishing to make memorial contributions are asked to consider the American Cancer Society.

Tribute Wall

AB

“ Again, Laura & family, Our deepest sympathy. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

Arnold & Brenda - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM

ML

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Marie and I were sad to learn of David's death. David was a good friend in our "growing up" years in Dade City. We shared many adventures. All are fond memories. May your memories bring you comfort and peace in the days ahead. May David rest in peace. God bless you!

Marie and Robert (Bobby) Alsabrook, Houma, LA - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM

NH

“ I was very saddened to learn of David's passing. We were great childhood friends and classmates. We shared many adventures while schoolmates.

Nick Harper - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM

SB

“ Laura, Rachel and Andrew We are saddened by your loss and hope you will cherish the good memories you have of your father and grandfather. We love you very much and hope to see you soon.

Steve, Angie, Carson and Molly Barrow - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM