“ To the family and those that knew Ed: May you all take comfort in the warm memories of your time spent with Ed. He was dearly loved by all of you, and I'm quite sure those feelings were mutual. I'll never forget how comfortable he made me feel on my first visit when I was "new" to the family. He was a good man. One last thing.....Ed, the Indians are finally going to do it!

“ Donna: Never met your father but he sounds like he was a very likable man. He played a lot of baseball so I'm sure I would have enjoyed his company just talking about that. Sorry for your loss--- parents are the one people that cannot be replaced once their gone---Life will feel different now---There will probably never be a day that passes when you give him a thought. Be at peace that he left you good memories.
